music by Melville Morris • words by Jack Yellen • 1919

Put some pink - y pow - der on your nose, Fix your - self up like a blush - ing rose.
Shake your feet there, gal, it's get - tin' late, This is no time for to hes - i - tate.

Hon - ey, come with me to that Ju - bi - lee, Tick - ets cost a dime, the ward - robe's free. The I can feel them blues way down in my shoes, When the mu - sic calls, I can't re - fuse. Just jazz - bo band will be there, You must - n't miss this swell af - fair.

hear that jazz mel - o - dy, Oh, hon', it's call - in' you and me.

Down a - round the riv - er, down a - round the riv - er, Hear those ban - jos, they'll make your heart a - quiv - er.

Lis - ten to those mu - si - cal feet, Hear them trot - tin' a - round the bales of cot - ton.
There's old Al - ex - an - der him - self In the mid - dle he plays a nast - y fid - dle, Come on, gal, let's join the mer - ry - mak - in'. Dog - gone, gal! I see your shoul - ders shak - in'.

I de - clare! there goes the par - son's daugh - ter, Look - y there! she's with a Pull - man por - ter.

Come on, let 'em shiv - er, down a - round the riv - er At the Dix - ie Ju - bi - lee.
What a time he'll give her
