

Jazzin' the Cotton Town Blues sheet music key: F / B-flat music by Harry Olsen • words by Roger Lewis • 1917

There's a jazz band in Mis - sis-sip-pi keep-in' the rev - 'lers dip-py, My, how they cry, how they moan_____ When they put on the jazz_____ notes heav - y, each night down on_____ the lev - ee, They're in a class of their own._____ For the cor - net, trom - bone, and the clar - i - net_____ Play the kind_____ of blues you won't for get. When the folks from the old_____ plan-ta-tion come for a cel - e - bra-tion full of joy._____

Just see them tod - dl - in' on,_____ wob - bl - in' on,_____ Hav-in' a big_____ ju-bi - lee._____

Old folks and young_____folks dan-cing, fel-lows and gals_____ a-pran-cing, Full of glee. Oh, hon - ey ba-by!

New notes that sigh,_____ blue notes that cry,_____ Make you wear out_____your dan-cing shoes._____ And there is some joy on the lev - ee, boy, When An - dy's band_____ in Dix - ie - land_____ Is jazz-in' the Cot - ton Town, jazz-in' the Cot - ton Town, Is jazz-in' the Cot - ton Town Blues._____