

Down in the Cane Brake

from Frank Crumit

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in common time (C). The melody is simple, with notes and rests corresponding to the lyrics. Chord symbols (C, F, G7) are placed above the staff at various points. The lyrics are written in a simple, sans-serif font below the staff.

Down in the cane brake, close by the mill, there's where I'll go,
some hap - py day,
there's where I'll stay,

G7 C

there lives a pret - ty gal, her name is Nan - cy Dill, I told her that I loved her, I down where the yel - low moon is hang - in' might - y low, I know that she'll be wait - ing be - you'll hear the wed - ding bells a - ring - in' might - y gay, There's gon - na be a cab - in, and 'long - side my Nan - cy Dill till we are laid a - way, And when we get to Hea - ven and loved her ver - y long, I'm gon - na ser - e - nade her and this will be my song:

side the cab - in door, and she'll be might - y happy when I tell her once — more:
in the trun - dle bed, there'll be a dar - lin' ba - by, and all be - cause I said:
Pet - er lets us in, I've got my wings a - flap - pin' and sing to her a - gain:
