Old New Or-leans is a great big old south-ern town Where hos-pi-tal - i-ty you will sure - ly find,

The pop - u - la - tion there is ver-y, ver-y fair, With ev - 'ry - thing they do, they all seem to be true,

The blues they have down there sure - ly is some - thing rare there. Now, lis - ten, they sound so good to you, it will make you dance the Hop Scop Blues. The girls in New Or-leans just simp-ly are a dream, They all are south-ern raised, you got to give 'em praise, They have a dance that's late, they sure are up to date. Now, hon-ey, you see the hap-py folks goi-in' to that big old Lin-coln, what I mean, that big old Lin coln Park. They dance the Hop Scop Blues, they are the best old blues,

They al-ways dance 'em, too, out at the Span-ish Fort. They ev-en dance those blues down on the old Sid-ney Boat.

Right here you glide, slide, dance, prance, Hop, stop, um, um.

I can nev-er get tired, danc-ing them Hop Scop Blues. Girls, Once more you slide, glide, prance, dance. The Hop Scop Blues will make you do a love-ly shake, It makes you feel so grand when you join hand in hand, Danc-ing them Hop Scop Blues down in old New Or-leans Town.
Boys,
