

Hear That Steamboat Whistle Blowing

sheet music key: E-flat

music by Wm. Rietzel • words by Leo Olevson • 1913

Sheet music for the song "Hear That Steamboat Whistle Blowing" in E-flat major, 2/4 time. The music is arranged for stringed instruments. The lyrics are: "Hear that steam-boat whis - tle blow-ing, blow-ing, Tak-ing me to Ten - nes - see, Where the field hands are a - hoe - ing, hoe - ing, There for years I've longed to be. Ban - jos and the old plan - ta - tion, ta - tion, With the ones so dear to me. Gee, it's good to be a - go - ing, go - ing, Back to dear old Ten - nes - see. Ten - nes - see, Ten - nes - see, My own Ten - nes - see, See the lit - tle chil - dren roll - ing on the floor, Hon - ey - suck - les climb - ing all a - round the door. Balm - y night, moon - light bright, in that land so free. Hear that whis - tle blow - ing, you see this child's a - go - ing, go - ing, Back to Ten - nes - see." The music features various chords including C, F, Fm, G7, D7, D+, C#, C#, E7, C, G, A7, Dm, and Am. The melody is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat).

Hear that steam-boat whis - tle blow-ing, blow-ing, Tak-ing me to Ten - nes - see, Where the field hands are a - hoe - ing, hoe - ing, There for years I've longed to be. Ban - jos and the old plan - ta - tion, ta - tion, With the ones so dear to me. Gee, it's good to be a - go - ing, go - ing, Back to dear old Ten - nes - see.
Ten - nes - see, Ten - nes - see, My own Ten - nes - see, See the lit - tle chil - dren roll - ing on the floor, Hon - ey - suck - les climb - ing all a - round the door. Balm - y night, moon - light bright, in that land so free.
Hear that whis - tle blow - ing, you see this child's a - go - ing, go - ing,
Back to Ten - nes - see.